The screenshot shows the GreatLifeStories website interface. At the top left is the logo "Great Life Stories Connecting Generations™". The main header reads "Celebrate Life by Connecting Generations". Below this is a navigation bar with links: Home, Browse, Create, Invite, MyStories, Contact, My Account, and Sign Out. On the left, there is a yellow search box titled "Find a Great Life Story:" with a text input field containing "type search topic in here" and a "Go" button. Below the search box is a section titled "International Points of Interest" featuring three photos: an elderly woman (captioned "Elnora's road trip"), a young woman in a school portrait (captioned "Zora's school"), and a woman in a red jacket (captioned "Rikki's special times"). On the bottom left, a "Browse" section lists categories: All Stories, Great Escapes, Great Relationships, Great Accomplishments, Great Health, and Great Expectations. On the bottom right, a "Today's Featured Great Life Story" section features a photo of a man and a text snippet: "And then I said, 'Dodie, we're in deep deep trouble!' A very interesting date I had with Dorothy was when we were in high school. Somehow or another, I came into a huge amount of money which was $10. So I told Dorothy we were going to go out on the town. So we went to the Micklett Hotel in downtown Minneapolis. There was a singer who was popular at the time whose name was Fran Warren. It was a dinner show and we sat...". At the bottom center, there is a call to action: "Create Your Own Great Life Story!".
